

CAMPING CREUSE NATURE NATURISME

1 Le Cheix – 23600 Boussac-Bourg

RULES AND REGULATIONS

PREAMBLE

Welcome to Camping Creuse Nature Naturisme, a family-friendly naturist campsite.

The purpose of these rules and regulations is to ensure that all holidaymakers, children, teenagers, families, visitors, staff, service providers and management enjoy:

- a pleasant and peaceful stay;
- respect for everyone's privacy and personal space;
- the safety of all;
- respect for the campsite's family-friendly and naturist character;
- the proper functioning of the facilities and equipment;
- respect for the environment and the site;
- courtesy and mutual respect.

These rules apply to everyone on the campsite, whether they are guests, visitors, accompanying persons, service providers or staff.

By entering, staying at or using the facilities of Camping Creuse Nature, you acknowledge that you have read and agree to abide by these rules and regulations, as well as any specific instructions displayed on site.

These rules supplement the applicable legal and regulatory provisions, as well as the general terms and conditions of sale, booking conditions and specific instructions provided to holidaymakers.

The management may amend certain provisions where necessary for reasons of safety, regulations, operational requirements, works, weather conditions or changes to the facilities.

1. CONDITIONS OF ADMISSION AND STAY

Access to Camping Creuse Nature is subject to authorisation by the management or its representative.

All guests must:

- be registered in accordance with the campsite's check-in procedures;
- comply with these rules;
- show respect for other holidaymakers, children, staff, service providers and management;
- take care of the facilities, equipment, plants and natural areas;
- adhere to the timetables and instructions displayed;
- respect the campsite's family-friendly and naturist character.

Any adult is responsible for the behaviour of any minors in their care or under their supervision during their stay.

2. STAY-RELATED TAXES

Each holidaymaker is required to pay the taxes applicable to their stay in accordance with the current rates provided by the campsite.

At the date of these rules, the stay-related taxes are set at €1 per day per adult staying at Camping Creuse Nature, subject to any regulatory changes to the applicable amount.

These taxes are payable for each day of stay concerned.

Holidaymakers undertake to provide the information necessary for the correct calculation of the amounts due and to settle these in accordance with the conditions specified by reception.

Any exemptions provided for by the regulations shall be applied in accordance with the legislation in force.

3. RESPECT, COURTESY AND COMMUNITY SPIRIT

Creuse Nature is a family-friendly campsite where everyone should be able to enjoy their stay in a peaceful and respectful atmosphere.

The following are strictly prohibited:

- insults;
- threats;
- verbal or physical abuse;
- aggressive behaviour;
- harassment;
- intimidating behaviour;
- discriminatory remarks;
- behaviour that undermines a person's dignity;
- any behaviour deliberately intended to disrupt another holidaymaker's stay.

Disputes must be reported to the management rather than being settled between holidaymakers themselves.

4. NATURISM AND FAMILY-FRIENDLY ENVIRONMENT

Creuse Nature is a family-friendly naturist campsite.

Naturism must be practised in a spirit of respect, simplicity, discretion and non-judgement.

Nudity is compulsory in naturist swimming and wellness areas, in particular:

- the indoor swimming pool;
- the outdoor swimming pool;
- the Nordic bath;
- the sauna;
- any other swimming pool;
- any new naturist swimming or wellness area that may be opened in the future.

Outside these areas, everyone must wear clothing appropriate to the activity being undertaken, out of respect for others and in keeping with the family-friendly nature of the campsite.

5. SEXUALLY EXPLICIT BEHAVIOUR

Naturist nudity does not, under any circumstances, constitute an invitation to engage in sexual behaviour.

The following are prohibited in communal areas, swimming areas, leisure facilities and, more generally, in places accessible to other holidaymakers:

- sexual behaviour;
- explicitly sexual gestures or attitudes;
- sexual intercourse in communal areas;
- any deliberate sexual exhibitionism;
- any use of campsite facilities or areas for sexual purposes;
- any behaviour likely to make other holidaymakers feel uncomfortable.

The wearing of cock rings is strictly prohibited throughout the campsite.

The use or visible display of objects, accessories or devices of a sexual nature is also prohibited in communal areas, particularly in swimming and wellness areas.

Tattoos and piercings, including intimate piercings, are permitted provided they are not used or displayed in a sexual context.

6. CHILD PROTECTION AND PARENTAL SUPERVISION

Parents or legal guardians are at all times responsible for supervising their children and minors.

This responsibility applies throughout the campsite:

- on pitches;
- in holiday accommodation;
- in communal areas;
- on playgrounds;
- around the pools;
- in the indoor swimming pool;
- in the outdoor swimming pool;
- at the Nordic bath;
- during entertainment activities;
- on the sports pitches;
- on paths and walkways;
- and in any other area of the campsite.

The provision of a playground, a swimming pool, sports facilities or entertainment does not constitute individual supervision of children by the campsite.

Parents must ensure that their children use the facilities in a manner appropriate to their age, abilities and safety instructions.

7. RELATIONSHIPS BETWEEN ADULTS AND CHILDREN

In order to protect minors, as well as adults on the campsite, from any ambiguous situations, the following rules apply.

No holidaymaker or other adult is permitted to:

- take a child who is not their own aside without the prior consent of the child's parent or legal guardian;
- take a child to a secluded place without parental authorisation;
- suggest an individual activity to a child without the consent of the child's parent or legal guardian;
- to organise an individual physical or recreational activity with a minor without prior authorisation;
- to play alone with a child who is not their own without parental authorisation;
- to transport a child without the prior consent of their parent or legal guardian, except in an emergency requiring assistance;
- to ask a child to keep a secret from their parents;
- to establish a private digital relationship with a minor without their parents' consent;
- to photograph or film a child without the required authorisation from their legal guardians;
- to suggest a meeting or an individual activity to a minor without the consent of their legal guardians.

Any cause for concern must be reported immediately to the management.

8. MOBILE PHONES, CAMERAS, PHOTOGRAPHS AND DIGITAL DEVICES

Protecting everyone's privacy is a fundamental principle at Creuse Nature.

It is prohibited to:

- take photographs of a person without their consent;
- film a person without their consent;
- to film a person without their knowledge;
- to make a video call showing other holidaymakers without their permission;
- to broadcast live on social media showing other people without their permission;
- to photograph or film children without the necessary permission from their legal guardians;
- to use a concealed device to take photographs or film;
- publishing images of people on the internet or social media without the necessary consent.

The mere presence of a person in a communal area does not in itself constitute consent to be photographed or filmed.

Particular care must be taken in naturist areas and around swimming pools.

9. CAMERA PROTECTION STICKERS

Protection stickers to be applied to cameras are provided free of charge upon arrival at reception.

They must be applied to the cameras on mobile phones, tablets, computers, cameras and other devices capable of taking photographs or videos and must be affixed at the edge of the swimming pools.

If a sticker comes off, is damaged or is lost, it must be replaced immediately.

It is forbidden to take photographs or record videos of people, on pain of being excluded from the site and facing criminal prosecution.

10. PRIVACY AND IMAGE RIGHTS

Anyone on the campsite must respect the privacy and personal space of others.

Any breach of the rules relating to the taking or dissemination of images may result in, amongst other things:

- an immediate request for the images to be deleted;
- exclusion from the campsite depending on the seriousness of the offence;
- and, where the legal conditions are met, a report or action being taken with the relevant authorities or courts.

11. GENERAL HYGIENE RULES

To ensure hygiene, cleanliness and comfort for everyone, each person must behave in a manner appropriate to communal living. Protective cloths

Everyone is asked to use a towel, a fouta or a clean cloth under their bottom when sitting on a communal surface.

This precaution is particularly required:

- on sun loungers;
- on chairs;
- in the sauna;
- on benches;
- in rest areas;
- at the bar;
- in the restaurant;
- and more generally on any seating provided.

In the sauna, it is compulsory to use a towel or fouta under the entire part of the body in contact with the wood.

12. SWIMMING POOLS, BATHING AREAS AND WELLNESS FACILITIES

Users are responsible for their own use of the pools; minors must be under the constant supervision of their parents or legal guardians.

Indoor swimming pool

The indoor swimming pool is open from the first day to the last day of the season, subject to temporary closures necessary for upkeep, maintenance, building works, technical issues, water quality, health or safety reasons, or exceptional circumstances.

Outdoor swimming pool

The outdoor swimming pool officially opens on 1 May each season.

The management reserves the right to change this date or to close the outdoor swimming pool from 15 September each season, in particular depending on weather conditions, temperature, visitor numbers, safety, maintenance or technical constraints.

For reasons of hygiene and to maintain water quality, period swimwear is not permitted in Creuse Nature's swimming pools, including the indoor pool, the outdoor pool and the Nordic bath.

Any sanitary protection used whilst swimming must be suitable for use in a swimming pool.

Items prohibited in swimming pools

To protect the liners and facilities, certain items are prohibited.

In particular, it is strictly forbidden to use mermaid fins or 'mermaid tail'-style monofins in the swimming pools, as these are likely to damage or puncture the pool liners.

This ban applies to:

- the indoor swimming pool;
- the outdoor swimming pool;
- and any pool fitted with a liner that could be damaged by this type of equipment.

Any equipment posing a risk to the liner, the facilities or the safety of users may be banned by management.

Prohibited behaviour around the pools includes, in particular:

- running;
- pushing someone into the water;
- engaging in dangerous games;
- diving where it is prohibited;
- using unauthorised equipment;
- bringing glass into the pool area or eating;
- damaging the facilities;
- leaving a child unattended;
- any behaviour of a sexual nature;
- any unauthorised photography or video recording.

13. SUN LOUNGERS AND PARASOLS AROUND THE POOLS

Personal sun loungers and parasols are strictly prohibited around the pools.

Sun loungers provided by the campsite must be used with care. Please use a towel, a fouta or a clean cloth between your body and the sun lounger.

Sun loungers must not be permanently reserved by leaving a towel or personal item on them.

14. SAUNA

The sauna is a space for well-being, tranquillity and mutual respect.

Children are not permitted in the sauna, unless otherwise expressly decided and displayed by the management.

All users must use a towel, a fouta or a clean cloth to prevent direct contact between the body and the wooden surfaces.

Dangerous behaviour, games, sexual behaviour, wearing a cock ring, the use of sexual objects or vandalism are prohibited.

Menstrual underwear is not permitted in the sauna.

15. NORDIC BATH

The Nordic bath is subject to the same principles of safety, hygiene, naturism and respect for privacy as the other bathing areas.

Nudity is compulsory.

Children must remain under the constant supervision of their parents or legal guardians.

Dangerous or sexual behaviour, unauthorised photography and unauthorised items are prohibited.

16. VEHICLE TRAFFIC

The maximum speed in the campsite's residential areas is: 5 KM/H MAXIMUM

The campsite operates on a one-way traffic system.

All drivers must comply with:

- the direction of traffic;
- road signs;
- speed limits;
- crossings;
- disabled access points;
- parking areas.

17. GATE AND NIGHT-TIME TRAFFIC

The campsite gate closes every evening at 10.00 pm.

After 10.00 pm, vehicle traffic within the campsite is not permitted, except in cases of special necessity, emergency or with the management's authorisation.

It is forbidden to block, force or disable the gate.

18. QUIET HOURS AND NOISE NUISANCES

A quiet period is in force every day, in both low and high season, from 1 pm to 3 pm.

Noisy building work, noisy DIY, loud music and activities causing significant noise nuisance are prohibited during this period.

Quiet must also be observed in the evening and at night. No vehicle traffic is permitted between 10.00 pm and 8.00 am, except for service vehicles.

19. RECEPTION OPENING HOURS

LOW SEASON	HIGH SEASON
10.00 am – 1.00 pm	10.00 am – 1.00 pm
3.00 pm – 6.00 pm	2.00 pm – 7.00 pm

These opening hours may be subject to change in exceptional circumstances, depending on operational requirements.

20. BAR, RESTAURANT AND COMMON AREAS

Common areas must be used with respect.

Everyone must take care of the furniture, leave the premises clean, and show respect for other guests and staff.

Guests are asked to place a towel, fouta or clean cloth under their bottom when sitting naked on chairs, benches or other communal seating. No credit is available at the bar. Each drink must be paid for immediately.

21. BARBECUES, FIRE AND FIRE RISK

Barbecues are permitted only with the prior consent of the management.

Authorisation depends in particular on:

- the risk of fire;
- weather conditions;
- prefectural or municipal by-laws;
- instructions from the authorities;
- drought conditions.

Management may refuse or withdraw this authorisation at any time. Two gas planchas are available for holidaymakers on the campsite.

Where a barbecue is authorised, the user is responsible for ensuring that it is

22. CLEANLINESS, WASTE AND THE ENVIRONMENT

All holidaymakers must keep their pitch and the communal areas reasonably clean.

Waste must be disposed of in the designated bins.

It is forbidden to litter, pollute the ground or water, or damage the plants.

23. PETS

The pet's up-to-date vaccination certificate must be presented at reception upon arrival.

Owners remain responsible for their pets. Pets must be kept on a lead whilst on the campsite, except in the designated area: POINT PROPRIÉTAIRE, located at the campsite entrance.

Owners must supervise their pets, prevent them from straying, clear up after them and prevent any aggressive behaviour.

For holiday rentals, a deposit of €150 in cash is required on arrival. This will be refunded following the exit inspection on the day of departure.

24. MINI-GOLF AND RECREATIONAL FACILITIES

The mini-golf course and its obstacles are facilities intended to be used for their intended purpose. The fee for a round must be paid at the bar, after which the equipment will be provided.

Children must be accompanied by an adult.

It is strictly forbidden to:

- stand on the obstacles;
- sit on them;
- climb on them;
- move them;
- use them as play equipment or climbing frames;
- damage them.

Players must respect the course, the equipment and other users. Any damage may be charged to the person responsible.

25. GAMES, SPORTS AND RECREATIONAL AREAS

Equipment must be used in accordance with its intended purpose and the instructions displayed.

Parents remain responsible for their children.

No equipment must be used in a dangerous manner or for any purpose other than that for which it is intended.

26. FISHING

Fishing is subject to specific rules provided by the management. All anglers must respect the authorised areas, safety rules, other people and the environment.

Children must remain under constant parental supervision. Any fish caught must be released back into the water. Swimming in the pond is prohibited.

27. FIRE SAFETY AND FIRST AID EQUIPMENT

Fire extinguishers are available on the campsite and may be used, if necessary, in accordance with their intended purpose and safety instructions.

Fire extinguishers must never be handled without a valid reason.

First aid kits are available:

- at the reception desk;
- in the restaurant.

They are intended to provide first aid in situations requiring immediate intervention but are not a substitute for medical or emergency services.

Defibrillator

An automated external defibrillator (AED) is available in the round building located near the washing machines and tumble dryers.

In the event of a medical emergency, the emergency services must be contacted immediately.

28. ELECTRIC VEHICLES AND CHARGING

Camping Creuse Nature provides holidaymakers with three charging points for electric vehicles. A charging agreement has been drawn up with Freshmile.

The charges applicable to charging are displayed and explained at reception.

Use of the charging points must comply with the terms and conditions of use and payment provided by the campsite and/or the service provider.

- Plugging in on the pitch is prohibited.
- No unauthorised connections will be tolerated.

In particular, it is forbidden to charge an electric vehicle:

- from a power socket on a pitch;
- from any electrical installation on the campsite not intended for this purpose;
- using a makeshift connection;
- using an extension lead or unsuitable equipment.

The dedicated charging points must be used in accordance with the rules on display.

Any connection posing a risk to the electrical installation or to personal safety may be disconnected immediately.

29. LOAN OF EQUIPMENT AND SECURITY DEPOSIT

The campsite may, subject to availability, provide holidaymakers with certain items of equipment or kit useful for their stay, in particular:

- extension leads;
- sockets;
- adaptors;
- electrical equipment;
- connection aids;
- or any other equipment made available on an ad hoc basis, such as the key to the disabled toilet facilities.

The provision of this equipment is subject to the payment of a deposit, the amount of which will be communicated at the time of loan.

The holidaymaker undertakes to:

- use the equipment for its intended purpose;
- take care of it;
- not lend it to a third party;
- return it in the condition in which it was entrusted to them;
- return it within the agreed time frame.

The deposit will be refunded upon return of the equipment, subject to its condition and the absence of any loss or damage.

In the event of loss, damage or failure to return the equipment, the costs of replacement or repair may be deducted from the deposit in accordance with the applicable terms and conditions.

30. PARKING AND LONG-TERM STORAGE

Vehicles and equipment must be parked in the designated areas.

Camping Creuse Nature offers a long-term storage service. During the season: the long-term storage fee is €3 per day. When the campsite is closed, the rate for the long-stay car park is: €10 per month.

Access to the long-stay car park and the conditions for leaving vehicles there are subject to the terms and conditions provided by the management.

The long-stay car park is not a place of accommodation or a pitch for staying overnight.

31. SEASONAL AND YEAR-ROUND PITCHES

Holidaymakers with a seasonal or year-round pitch must have a written and signed contract with Camping Creuse Nature.

The contract specifies, in particular, the conditions applicable to the pitch, the period of occupation and the financial obligations.

Advance payment required

Payment for the contractual period must be settled in full before entering the site on the campsite's opening date, unless otherwise specified in writing in the contract.

No setting up of camp or occupation of the pitch shall be deemed authorised until the required contractual and financial formalities have been completed.

The specific provisions set out in the seasonal or annual contract supplement these rules and regulations.

32. HOLIDAY ACCOMMODATION — CHECK-IN AND CHECK-OUT

Holiday accommodation is available from: 4.00 pm ON THE DAY OF ARRIVAL

On the day of departure, the accommodation must be vacated by: 10.00 am at the latest

These times allow the campsite staff to carry out cleaning, maintenance, any necessary repairs and the restoration of the accommodation to its original condition.

33. RENTAL DEPOSIT AND INSPECTION CHECKLIST FOR PETS

A deposit of €150 in cash is required on arrival from holidaymakers renting accommodation at Camping Creuse Nature.

This deposit is intended, in particular, to ensure:

- that the accommodation is treated with care;
- that no damage is caused;
- that all equipment is returned;
- compliance with cleaning rules;
- the accommodation being left in good order.

An initial inventory is carried out on arrival.

A final inventory is carried out on departure. An appointment must be arranged with the reception staff on the day of your arrival.

The deposit is held in the campsite's safe for the duration of your stay.

Provided that no damage has been found and that the required cleaning has been carried out correctly, the same sum of €150 will be returned to the holidaymaker on departure, in accordance with the arrangements made with reception.

In the event of damage, missing items or cleaning not carried out in accordance with the instructions, the corresponding costs may be deducted from the deposit in accordance with the applicable terms and conditions.

If the cost of the damage exceeds the amount of the security deposit, the difference may be claimed from the person responsible.

34. CHECK-OUT FROM HOLIDAY ACCOMMODATION

On the day of departure, the guest must:

- vacate the accommodation completely by 10.00 am at the latest;
- empty the bins;
- wash up and put the crockery away;
- sweep the accommodation;
- dispose of rubbish in the bins;
- put the furniture back in its place;
- leave no personal belongings behind;
- close all doors and windows;
- switch off all lights;
- switch off any electrical appliances that should not be left running;
- follow any specific instructions for the accommodation.

Fridge

Unless otherwise instructed by reception or indicated in the accommodation, the guest must empty and switch off the fridge before departure.

35. KEYS FOR HOLIDAY ACCOMMODATION

Keys must be left inside the holiday accommodation on departure, in the place indicated by reception or as specified in the departure instructions.

Any keys that are lost, damaged or not returned may be charged at a rate corresponding to the actual cost of replacement.

36. ENERGY CONSUMPTION IN RENTAL ACCOMMODATION

All guests are asked to use energy reasonably and responsibly.

In particular, guests are asked to:

- switch off lights when a room is unoccupied;
- not leave lights on unnecessarily;
- not to leave electrical appliances switched on unnecessarily;
- to close doors and windows when the heating or air conditioning is on;
- to report any electrical or technical faults.

Any clearly abusive or dangerous use may result in intervention by the management.

37. ACCESS TO THE ACCOMMODATION BY THE MANAGEMENT

The holiday accommodation is considered a private space during the stay.

However, the management and authorised staff of Creuse Nature reserve the right to enter the holiday accommodation without the holidaymaker's prior consent if circumstances so require.

Such access may occur, in particular, in the following cases:

- in the event of force majeure;
- in an emergency;
- in the event of imminent danger;
- in the event of a fire or fire hazard;
- in the event of water damage;
- in the event of an electrical or technical fault;
- if a gas leak is suspected;
- in the event of exceptional weather conditions;
- in the event of an evacuation;
- to ensure the safety of persons or property;
- to prevent significant damage.

In the holidaymaker's absence, access may be granted without prior authorisation, provided this is justified by an emergency or safety concerns.

Where possible, the holidaymaker will be informed of such access.

Access shall be limited to what is strictly necessary.

38. EXCEPTIONAL EVENTS, FORCE MAJEURE AND CIRCUMSTANCES BEYOND THE CAMPING SITE'S CONTROL

Camping Creuse Nature may be required to adapt, suspend or temporarily close all or part of its facilities where exceptional circumstances or circumstances beyond its control so require.

These include, in particular:

- exceptional weather events;
- severe weather;
- flooding;
- storms;
- strong winds;
- drought;
- heatwaves;
- fires or fire risks;
- natural disasters;
- epidemics;
- pandemics;
- administrative decisions;
- evacuation orders;
- access restrictions;
- major water or electricity cuts beyond the campsite's control;
- public health measures;
- any other event constituting force majeure or a circumstance beyond the campsite's control.

The safety of guests remains our top priority at all times.

Refund Terms and Conditions

Where a stay, a service or access to a facility is affected by an event of force majeure, an administrative decision, exceptional weather conditions, a fire, an epidemic, a pandemic or any other circumstance beyond the control of Camping Creuse Nature, no refund, indemnity or compensation may be claimed from the campsite on the sole ground that it is impossible or difficult to enjoy the stay or certain services, subject to any mandatory legal provisions that may apply and the contractual terms accepted at the time of booking.

Holidaymakers are advised to take out insurance covering, in particular, the risks of cancellation, interruption of stay, adverse weather conditions, natural disasters, epidemics, pandemics, fire and evacuation.

39. ACCESSIBILITY AND PEOPLE WITH REDUCED MOBILITY

Access routes reserved for people with reduced mobility must remain clear.

It is forbidden to park in front of a ramp, to block an accessible passageway or to misuse a reserved space.

A key for the disabled toilets may be obtained from the campsite reception in exchange for a €20 deposit.

A JOB wheelchair for launching into the water is available free of charge to holidaymakers and can be obtained on request.

40. ACTIVITIES AND EVENTS

Activities and events are organised in a relaxed and friendly atmosphere.

Participants must show respect for activity leaders, speakers, timetables, safety instructions and other participants.

A child's participation in an activity does not automatically relieve their parents of their duty of supervision.

41. RESPECT FOR STAFF AND MANAGEMENT

Employees, seasonal staff, contractors, managers and supervisors must be treated with respect.

The following are prohibited:

- insults;
- threats;
- intimidation;
- assaults;
- humiliating behaviour;
- repeated aggressive behaviour.

42. DAMAGE AND LIABILITY

Each holidaymaker is liable for any damage they cause to the campsite's property, facilities, equipment, accommodation, green spaces or the property of others.

Any deliberate damage, gross negligence or improper use may result in the holidaymaker being charged for the necessary repairs or replacement.

43. PERSONAL BELONGINGS AND THEFT

Each holidaymaker remains responsible for their personal belongings.

It is recommended that you do not leave valuables unattended.

Any items found must be handed in at reception.

44. EMERGENCIES AND SAFETY

In the event of an accident, fire, medical emergency or dangerous situation:

1. Ensure people's safety;

2. Notify reception or management immediately;
3. Call the emergency services where necessary;
4. Follow the instructions given;
5. Proceed to the designated assembly point.

Access routes reserved for the emergency services must remain clear.

45. ALCOHOL, ILLEGAL SUBSTANCES AND DANGEROUS BEHAVIOUR

The sale of alcohol to minors is prohibited.

The consumption of alcohol must be consistent with safety and respect for others.

The possession, consumption, distribution or trafficking of illegal substances is prohibited.

Any behaviour that deliberately endangers another person may result in intervention by management and, if necessary, the involvement of the police.

46. TOBACCO AND VAPING

Smoking or vaping is prohibited in areas where regulations or signage prohibit it.

Cigarette ends must be extinguished and disposed of in the designated bins.

It is strictly forbidden to discard cigarette ends in the open countryside.

47. COMPLAINTS AND DISPUTES

Any complaints must be addressed to reception or management as soon as possible.

Holidaymakers are asked not to resolve disputes through threats, insults or aggressive behaviour.

48. BREACHES OF THE RULES

Any breach of these rules may result, depending on its nature, severity and whether it is a repeat offence, in:

- a reminder of the rules;
- a warning;
- an immediate request to cease the behaviour;
- a temporary ban on the use of facilities;
- compensation for or reimbursement of any damage caused;
- termination of the stay;
- exclusion from the campsite where the legal and contractual conditions are met;
- reporting the matter to the relevant authorities where the circumstances warrant it.

49. PARTICULARLY SERIOUS BREACHES

The following, in particular, may constitute serious breaches:

- endangering a child;
- failure to supervise a child, thereby creating a risk;
- violence;
- threats;
- harassment;
- deliberate invasion of privacy;
- covert photography or filming;
- unauthorised photography or filming of a minor;
- use of a concealed device;
- unauthorised distribution of images;
- sexual behaviour in communal areas;
- wearing a cock ring;
- use of a sexual object in communal areas;
- repeated refusal to comply with safety instructions;
- wilful damage;
- dangerous behaviour;
- unauthorised electrical connections posing a hazard;
- use of prohibited equipment in swimming pools;
- trespassing on closed premises;
- blocking an emergency exit;
- deliberately endangering other holidaymakers or staff.

50. EXPULSION FROM THE CAMPSITE

In the event of a serious or repeated breach of these rules, the management may take any measures provided for by the applicable regulations and contractual terms, up to and including exclusion or termination of the stay.

Where the conditions for immediate expulsion are met, in particular in the event of behaviour that is dangerous, violent, threatening, destructive, insolent, seriously intrusive or incompatible with the safety of persons, the management may require the holidaymaker to leave the campsite immediately, even if they do not agree.

Where the interruption or exclusion from the stay results from the holidaymaker's misconduct, no refund of sums already paid may be claimed where the applicable regulations and contractual terms permit such action. Any additional costs relating to damage caused may be claimed separately, and a damage report will be drawn up by the campsite management.

No refund of sums paid, nor compensation for re-accommodation or transport costs incurred by the holidaymaker as a result of the situation they have created, will be provided.

51. MANAGEMENT'S RIGHT TO INTERVENE

Management and persons authorised by it are entitled to intervene whenever a situation poses a risk to a person, a child, equipment, the environment, fire safety or the peace and quiet of the campsite.

In particular, the management may require the immediate cessation of certain behaviour, the halting of an activity, the removal of equipment, the removal of a person from the premises, or any other measure necessary for safety, without the consent of parents in the case of minors.

52. AMENDMENTS AND CHANGES TO THE RULES

Camping Creuse Nature may amend its rules and regulations to take account of:

- changes in legislation;
- new facilities;
- new equipment;
- safety recommendations;
- administrative decisions;
- weather or environmental conditions;
- experience gained during the campsite's operation.

Any new rules applicable to holidaymakers will be brought to their attention by notice, information at reception or any other appropriate means.

53. ACCEPTANCE OF THE RULES AND REGULATIONS

Acceptance of the Rules and Regulations of Camping Creuse Nature implies that each holidaymaker acknowledges having read these Rules and Regulations and the General Terms and Conditions of Sale upon making their booking, and upon receipt of their deposit and the attached documents sent by the campsite. The Rules and Regulations are translated into various foreign languages to ensure everyone can understand them.

- to have read these Rules and Regulations;
- to accept the provisions herein;
- to undertake to comply with them;
- to undertake to ensure that the rules are observed by those in their care;
- to have been informed that failure to comply with the rules may result in measures proportionate to the seriousness of the offence, which may include the interruption or termination of the stay in accordance with the applicable legal and contractual conditions.

54. THE 10 ESSENTIAL RULES OF CREUSE NATURE

1. Respect other holidaymakers, children, staff and management.
2. Supervise your children at all times.
3. Observe the compulsory nudity rule in naturist swimming and wellness areas.
4. Never photograph or film anyone without the necessary permission.
5. Never photograph or film a child without the consent of their legal guardians.
6. Never take a child who is not your own aside or isolate them without parental consent.
7. Observe the 5 km/h speed limit and the one-way traffic system.
8. Observe the quiet hours from 1 pm to 3 pm, every day, in both low and high season.
9. Never use a barbecue without prior authorisation from the management.
10. Comply immediately with any safety instructions given by the management or displayed on the campsite.
11. Settle the balance for your stay before leaving the premises.

COMMENCEMENT OF EFFECT

These rules and regulations shall come into force on the date they are displayed and made available to holidaymakers. They apply to anyone staying at or visiting the Creuse Nature Campsite.
